Dear Ms. Davis,

I am a retired New York City high school science teacher, and want to give what the Board of Education calls a developmental lesson on the arguments for God's existence to Columbia students and faculty. Being a Catholic, I first approached the Columbia Catholic Ministry. This resulted in some kind of legal battle that I recently informed Dean Valentini about. I published my ideas about this topic here:

I've attached the hand-out I would use in such a lesson. I've also attached the email I sent to Dr. Valentini with a cc to Msgr. Paddack.

Very truly yours,

David Roemer
