Dear Mr. Valentini,

I'm writing to ask you to intervene in a conflict that has arisen between me and the Assistant Dean for Student and Family Support. I attached the letter I got from your Department of Public Safety and the email I sent to Mr. Patashnick. I am repeating to you my request to discuss my concerns with the two students and/or Msgr. Paddack, who is both their pastor and a campus minister. I have written about this scandal to the Archbishop of New York and the President of the Pontifical Academy of Sciences (see <http://www.newevangelist.me>).

Very truly yours,

David Roemer

Dear Diedra,

I haven't yet heard from Valentini or Paddack. I've attached the lesson plan about God's existence that I am dying to give, preferably to grown-up academicians. Think of it as test. If you want to take the test, I'll be glad to grade it.

Very truly yours,
David Roemer
