1) I am the plaintiff, pro se, in the above action.

2) I make this affidavit pursuant to Rule 55.1 and 55.2(a) of the Civil Rules for the Southern District of New York in support of plaintiff's application for the entry of a default judgment against the defendant Lee Bollinger.

3) The jurisdiction of this court is invoked pursuant to the 1st and 14th amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

4) The action was commenced on 1/30/17 by the filing of the Summons and Complaint against Jane Booth and the Attorney Grievance Committee. An amended complaint was filed on 2/13/17 naming Lee Bollinger as a defendant.  On 2/22/17, Andrew Schilling filed a motion to dismiss the complaint and stated that he represented Lee Bollinger. A licensed process server left a copy of the amended complaint with a paralegal named Elizabeth Conley at 202 Low Library, 535 W. 116th Street, NY, NY 10027 on 2/23/17, 03:58 PM, and proof of service was filed with the court.  On 2/24/17, Judge Castel dismissed the complaint. On 2/24/17, the plaintiff sent a letter to Judge Castel explaining why the dismissal was irrational (document 14). On 3/02/17, the plaintiff filed a motion (document

17) and a memorandum of law (document 18) to disqualify Judge Castel. Upon information and belief, Andrew Schilling falsely and maliciously stated that he represented Lee Bollinger to deceive this court. This means that Lee Bollinger has not answered the complaint and the time for the defendant to answer the complaint has expired.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff requests the entry of Default and the entry of the annexed Judgment against Lee C. Bollinger.
