Dear Mr. Roemer:

This letter is a follow up to your conversation with Mr. Ken Finnegan, Associate director of Investigations, on August 31, 2016.

During that conversation, Mr. Finnegan explained that your continued attempts to communicate with members of the Columbia community were causing concern to students and staff and at the request of those students and staff, you were directed to stop attempting to communicate with them. This letter serves to formally notify you that any further attempts to communicate with the students or staff will be considered harassment.

Additionally, based on your actions you are considered persona non grata on Columbia property. If you are found on Columbia University property without prior permission from this office, you will be considered a trespasser and subject to immediate arrest.

Sincerely,

Deidre Fuchs
Director of Investigations
